Share capital and variation of rights

II. 1. (a) The Authorized Share Capital of the company shall be as defined in Clause V of the Memorandum of Association with the rights, privileges and conditions attached thereto as per the relevant provisions contained in that behalf in these presents and with power to the Company to increase or reduce the capital and to divide the shares in the capital for the time being into several classes (being those specified in the Companies Act, 2013) and to attach thereto respectively such preferential, qualified or special rights, privileges or conditions as may be determined by or in accordance with the Articles of Association of the company and to vary, modify, enlarge or abrogate any such rights, privileges or conditions in such manner as may be permitted by the said Act or provided by these articles of association of the company.

(b) Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, the shares in the capital of the company shall be under the control of the Directors who may issue, allot or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them to such persons, in such proportion and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par and at such time as they may from time to time think fit.

2. (i) Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall be entitled to receive within two months after incorporation, in case of subscribers to the memorandum or after allotment or within one month after the application for the registration of transfer or transmission or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall be provided,—

(a) one certificate for all his shares without payment of any charges; or

(b) several certificates, each for one or more of his shares, upon payment of twenty rupees for each certificate after the first.

(ii) Every certificate shall be under the seal and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid-up thereon.

(iii) In respect of any share or shares held jointly by several persons, the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.

3. (i) If any share certificate be worn out, defaced, mutilated or torn or if there be no further space on the back for endorsement of transfer, then upon production and surrender thereof to the company, a new certificate may be issued in lieu thereof, and if any certificate is lost or destroyed then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the company and on execution of such indemnity as the company deem adequate, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given. Every certificate under this Article shall be issued on payment of twenty rupees for each certificate.

(ii) The provisions of Articles 2 and 3 shall mutatis mutandis apply to debentures of the company.

4. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and the company shall not be bound by, or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share, or any interest in any fractional part of a share, or (except only as by these regulations or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

5 (i) The company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by sub-section (6) of section 40, provided that the rate per cent. or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by that section and rule made thereunder.

(ii) The rate or amount of the commission shall not exceed the rate or amount prescribed in rules made under sub-section (6) of section 40.

(iii) The commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in the one way and partly in the other.

6. (i) If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of section 48, and whether or not the company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

(ii) To every such separate meeting, the provisions of these regulations relating general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be at least two persons holding at least one-third of the issued shares of the class in question.

7. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further share ranking pari passu therewith.

8. The Subscription Shares shall rank pari passu with the other Equity Shares of the Company in all respects, including without limitation, with respect to entitlement to dividend and voting rights.

9. Subject to the provisions of section 55, any preference shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the company before the issue of the shares may, by special resolution, determine.

Lien

10. (i) The company shall have a first and paramount lien—

(a) on every share (not being a fully paid share), for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called, or payable at a fixed time, in respect of that share; and

(b) on all shares (not being fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person, for all monies presently payable by him or his estate to the company:

Provided that the Board of directors may at any time declare any share to wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause.

(ii) The company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividend bonuses declared from time to time in respect of such shares.

11. The company may sell, in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the company has a lien:

Provided that no sale shall be made—

(a) unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; or

(b) until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or insolvency.

12. (i) To give effect to any such sale, the Board may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.

(ii) The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer.

(iii) The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

13. (i) The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.

(ii) The residue, if any, shall, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

Calls on shares

14. (i) The Board may, from time to time, make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times:

Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call

(ii) Each member shall, subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares.

(iii) A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board

15. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.

16. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

17. (i) If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at ten per cent. per annum or at such lower rate, if any, as the Board may determine.

(ii) The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.

18. (i) Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall, for the purposes of these regulations, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue such sum becomes payable.

(ii) In case of non-payment of such sum, all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

19. The Board—

(a) may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and

(b) upon all or any of the monies so advanced, may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding, unless the company in general meeting shall otherwise direct, twelve per cent. per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Board and the member paying the sum in advance.

Transfer of shares

20. (i) The instrument of transfer of any share in the company shall be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and transferee.

(ii) The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.

21. The Board may, subject to the right of appeal conferred by section 58 decline to register—

(a) the transfer of a share, not being a fully paid share, to a person of whom they do not approve; or

(b) any transfer of shares on which the company has a lien.

22. The Board may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless—

(a) the instrument of transfer is in the form as prescribed in rules made under sub-section (1) of section 56;

(b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and

(c) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.

23. On giving not less than seven days' previous notice in accordance with section 91 and rules made thereunder, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine:

Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days at any one time or for more than forty-five days in the aggregate in any year.

24. (1) The Investor shall not sell the Investor Shares, together with their rights, to any Competitor. For this purpose, "Competitor" shall mean any company, Indian or overseas, which itself or along with one of its Affiliates derives (including, by way of consolidation of accounts), not less than percentage twenty (20%) of its revenues from generic pharmaceutical drug formulations and/or active pharmaceutical ingredient and/or phytochemicals (menthol) and as per the list set out in Schedule 10 of the Agreement.

Provided that nothing in this clause shall restrict any Transfer of shares by the Investor on any Exchange or in the event of the Investor exercising the tag along right in accordance with the Undertaking.

(2) It is hereby clarified that the Investor shall have the right to transfer all the Investor Shares held by it to any Competitor of the Company, subject to the Investor procuring the prior written approval of the Company and the Promoters in that regard.

(3) Subject to compliance with the provisions of sub-clause (1) above, the Investor shall be entitled to Transfer up to all its Investor Shares to any Person whether together with or without the rights and/or obligations of the Investor hereunder and under the Undertaking on signing the Deed of Adherence, provided, however, that the Transfer of rights shall not result in the multiplication of such rights.

(4) Subject to provisions of sub-clause (3) above, the Investor shall be entitled in its absolute discretion to transfer any or all of the Investor Shares in the Company to or for the benefit of its Affiliates so long as such Affiliate is not a Competitor and subject to the Affiliate signing the Deed of Adherence.

(5) Subject to the provisions of (1) and (3) above, the Investor shall have the right, at its discretion, to sell and assign similar rights, including the right to a Board representation, to another investor or investors provided the incoming investor(s) shall hold a minimum shareholding of percentage ten (10%) of the entire issued share capital of the Company.

25. (1) Except with the prior Investor Consent, the Promoters shall not Transfer, during the duration of the Agreement or for two (2) years from the Completion Date, whichever is earlier, any shares, warrants or other Securities convertible into Equity Shares held by them in the Company in any manner whatsoever.

(2) Further, during the duration of the Agreement or for two (2) years from the Completion Date, whichever is earlier, the Promoters shall not Encumber any shares of the Company held by them in the Company, except

(i) for the purposes of raising funds in connection with the Business of the Company; or

(ii) up to percentage twenty (20%) of the Promoters' then aggregate shareholding in the Company can be Encumbered for any other purposes, provided that they hold at least percentage thirty (30%) of the share capital of the Company which shall either be un-Encumbered or Encumbered in accordance with (i) above; or

(iii) with the prior Investor Consent.

The restrictions contained in this Article 25 shall be referred to hereinafter as the "Promoter Lock in".

26. (1) Nothing herein shall however restrict the Transfer inter se between the Promoters, provided that save and except change in shareholding upon conversion of New GDRs and Existing FCCBs, if any, the shareholding of the Key Promoter shall not reduce, for any reason whatsoever, below the proportion of the share capital of the Company held by him in the Company on the date of execution of the Agreement and the Undertaking, provided that the Key Promoter shall be entitled to Transfer his shares in the Company to his immediate family on the condition that (i) the transferee and the Key Promoter both jointly and severally assume all obligations of the "Key Promoter" referred to in the Undertaking and in the Agreement and (ii) the Key Promoter shall, irrespective of his shareholding in the Company be liable for the actions of the transferee; provided further that the promoter-transferee (including a Key Promoter transferee) (if not a signatory to the Agreement) shall execute a Deed of Adherence agreeing to be bound by the terms of the Agreement.

(2) Notwithstanding Articles 25 and 26(1), if any Promoter ("Transferor") proposes to Transfer any Equity Shares, the Investor shall be entitled to participate on pro-rata basis in the proposed Transfer, provided however that the Investor shall be entitled to Transfer all the Investor Shares on a priority basis, in the event there is a change of control of the Company as a consequence of, or in connection with, any Transfer of Equity Shares by the Promoters or the Promoters' holding reduces below percentage twenty six (26%) of the then share capital of the Company calculated on a Fully Diluted Basis, in the following manner:

(i) The Transferor shall first give a written notice ("Offer Notice") to the Investor ("Offeree"). The Offer Notice shall state (i) the number of Equity Shares proposed to be Transferred by the Transferor (the "Sale Shares") and the number and class of Equity Shares the Transferor owns at that time on Fully Diluted Basis, (ii) the name and address of the proposed transferee (if any), (iii) the proposed price, including the proposed amount and form of consideration and terms and conditions offered by such proposed transferee, (iv) the estimated date of consummation of the proposed Transfer, (v) a representation that the proposed transferee (if there be any such proposed transferee) has been informed of the "tag-along" rights provided for in these Articles and that the proposed transferee has agreed to purchase all the Equity Shares required to be purchased in accordance with the terms of this clause, and (vi) a representation that no consideration, tangible or intangible (whether as non-compete consideration or otherwise) is being provided to the Transferor that will not be reflected in the price paid to the Investor on exercise of his tag-along rights hereunder. In the event that the proposed consideration for the Transfer includes consideration other than cash, including, non-compete consideration, the Transfer Notice shall include a calculation of the fair market value of such consideration and an explanation of the basis for such calculation. The total value of the consideration for the proposed Transfer is referred to herein as the "Offer Price".

(ii) The Investor shall be entitled to respond to the Offer Notice by serving a written notice (the "Response Notice") on the Transferor prior to the expiry of thirty (30) Business Days from the date of receipt of the Offer Notice ("Offer Period") requiring the Transferor to ensure that the proposed transferee of the Sale Shares also purchases such number of the Equity Shares of the Investor, as mentioned in the Response Notice ("Offered Securities") at the same price and on the same terms as are mentioned in the Offer Notice, except that the Investor shall not be required to provide any representations or warranties to the proposed transferee other than with respect to their title to the Offered Securities and the Investor shall be entitled to receive the full consideration for such shares as received by the Promoters, including non-compete considerations (without having to provide any non-compete restriction) and the cash equivalent of any non-cash component of the Offer Price.

(iii) If:

(a) The Promoters continue to remain in control and management of the Company after such Transfer, and the proposed transferee is unwilling or unable to acquire all of the Offered Securities mentioned in the Response Notice upon such terms, then the Promoters may elect either to cancel such proposed Transfer or to allocate the maximum number of Equity Shares of the Company which the proposed transferee is willing to purchase among the Sale Shares and the Offered Securities specified by the Investor Group in the Response Notice, pro-rata in the ratio of the equity shareholding in the Company at such time of the Promoters and the Investor Group, and to consummate such Transfer on such terms. The Promoters shall not be entitled to Transfer any of the Sale Shares to any proposed transferee unless the proposed transferee simultaneously purchases and pays for the required number of Offered Securities in accordance with the provisions of this Article; or

(b) The Promoters cease to remain in control and management of the Company after such Transfer, the Promoters shall not be entitled to sell or Transfer any of the Sale Shares to any proposed transferee, unless the proposed transferee simultaneously purchases and pays for the Offered Securities for the same consideration and upon the same terms and conditions as applicable to the Sale Shares.

(iv) The Transferor shall ensure that, along with the Sale Shares, the proposed transferee also acquires the Offered Securities specified in each Response Notice for the Offer Price and upon the same terms and conditions as applicable to the Sale Shares, provided that, the Investor may choose to receive the cash equivalent of any such consideration which is in a form other than cash and the Investor shall not be required to provide any representations and warranties in respect of the Offered Securities other than with respect to their title to the Offered Securities. Where the Investor has properly elected to exercise its tag-along right and the proposed transferee fails to purchase from the Investor the Offered Securities which it is entitled to sell under this tag along provision, the Transferor shall not make the proposed Transfer of the Sale Shares, and if purported to be made, such Transfer shall be void and the Promoters shall procure and ensure that the Company does not register any such Transfer.

(v) In the event Investor does not deliver a Response Notice to the Promoters prior to the expiry of the Offer Period, then, upon the expiry of the Offer Period, the Transferor shall be entitled to sell and transfer the Sale Shares to the proposed transferee mentioned in the Offer Notice on the same terms and conditions and for the same consideration as is specified in the Offer Notice. Any transferee purchasing the Sale Shares shall deliver to the Transferor on or before the date of consummation of the proposed Transfer specified in the Offer Notice payment in full of the Offer Price in respect of the Sale Shares in accordance with the terms set forth in the Offer Notice. If completion of the sale and Transfer to the proposed transferee does not take place within the period of sixty (60) days of the expiry of the Offer Period, the Transferor's right to sell the Sale Shares to such a party shall lapse and the provisions of this sub-clause (2) shall once again apply to the Sale Shares.

For the purposes of this Article, the term "control" shall mean:

(p) the ability to appoint a majority of the Board;

(q) being the single largest shareholder of the Company;

(r) Equity Share holding being not less than percentage twenty six (26%) of the then issued and paid-up share capital of the Company;

(s) the ability to control the composition or the decisions of the Board, or

(t) the possession of power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the Company by virtue of the articles of association or an agreement or contract or otherwise.

It is clarified that if any of the conditions above is not fulfilled, then the Promoters shall be deemed to have ceased to remain in control of the Company.

(3) Where the Investor requires prior Government Approvals for disposal of the Offered Securities pursuant to 26, then notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Investor shall only be obliged to dispose of the Offered Securities once such Governmental Approval is obtained. Any period within which a transfer of the Offered Securities by the Investor has to be completed shall be extended by such further period as is necessary for the purpose of obtaining such Governmental Approval. Provided that if any of such Governmental Approval is finally withheld, then the Investor shall be deemed not to have offered to sell the Offered Securities.

(4) The Transfer restrictions on the Promoters in the Undertaking, the Agreement and/or in these Articles shall not be capable of being avoided by the holding of Equity Shares indirectly through a company or other entity that can itself be sold in order to dispose of an interest in Equity Shares free of such restrictions. Any Transfer, issuance or other disposal of any shares (or other interest) resulting in any change in the control, directly or indirectly, of the Promoters, or of any Affiliate of any Promoter which holds, directly or indirectly, any Equity Shares, shall be treated as being a Transfer of the Equity Shares held by the Promoter, and the provisions of these Articles, the Undertaking and the Agreement that apply in respect of the Transfer of Equity Shares shall thereupon apply in respect of the Equity Shares so held.

(5) Any Transfer or attempted Transfer of any Securities of the Company in violation of these Articles shall be void and the Company shall ensure that no such Transfer shall be recorded on the Company's books and the purported transferee in any such Transfer shall not be treated (and the purported transferor shall be treated) as the owner of such Securities for all purposes.

(6) Subject to the terms of the Agreement, the Investor shall be entitled to deal with, dispose of, Transfer and/or Encumber all or any of their Equity Shares together with or without their rights and / or obligations hereunder, to any other Person. No restriction (including any restriction under Article 24(3)) shall apply in respect of any sale of shares by the Investor pursuant to the tag along right at sub-clause (1) above.

27. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, any Transfer or attempt to Transfer any Equity Shares in violation of the Undertaking or the Agreement shall be null and void ab initio, and to the extent it is within the reasonable control of the Company, Company shall not register such Transfer and shall reject any such Transfers made or attempted, suo moto without necessity of a Board decision to institute proceedings for this purpose if required by Law.

28. (i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Articles the company shall be entitled to dematerialize its securities and to offer securities in a dematerialized form pursuant to the Depositories Act.

(ii) When any, securities of the company are held or dealt in dematerialized form.

- a. Every person holding securities of the company through allotment or otherwise shall have the option to receive and hold the same in the dematerialized form with a depository.
- b. All securities held by a depository shall be dematerialized and shall be in fungible form. Nothing contained in the Act, shall apply to a depository in respect of the securities held by it on behalf of the beneficial owner.
- c. Every person holding securities of the Company with a depository, being the beneficial owner thereof, may at any time opt out of the depository in the manner provided under the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996 and the rules, if any, prescribed thereunder and on fulfillment of the conditions prescribed by the company from time to time, the company shall issue the relevant security certificate to the beneficial owner thereof.

29. i) The company shall make available to the depository, copies of the relevant records in respect of securities held by such depository for the beneficial owner thereof.

(ii) When a holder or an allottee of the securities opts to hold the same with a depository, the company shall intimate such depository, the details of his holding or allotment of securities and thereupon the depository shall enter in its record the names of the holders/allottees as the beneficial owners of such securities.

30. The register and index of Beneficial Owners of the securities maintained by a Depository under Section 11 of Depositories Act, shall be deemed to be the Register and index of Members or of holders of Debenture or other securities of the company.

31. (i) Transfer of securities held in a depository will be governed by a provision of Depositories Act, 1996.

(ii) Every depository shall furnish to the company information about the transfer of securities, the name of beneficial owners at such intervals and in such manner as may be specified under provisions of Depositories Act, 1996,

(iii) Section 56 of the Act shall not apply to transfer of securities effected by the transfer or and the transferee both of whom are entered as a beneficial owners in the record of a depository.

32. (i) A depository shall be deemed to be the registered owner for the purpose of effecting the transfer of ownership of securities on behalf of the beneficial owner and shall not have any voting rights of any other rights or any other rights in respect of the securities held by it.

(ii) Every person holding securities of the company and whose name is entered as the beneficial owner in the records of the depository shall be deemed to be a member of the company. The beneficial owner of securities shall be entitled to all the rights and benefits and be subject to all the liabilities in respect of his securities, which are held by a depository.

33. Nothing contained in the Act or these Articles regarding the necessity of having number for securities issued by the company shall apply to securities.

34. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles or the Act, the provisions of Depositories Act, 1996, relating to dematerialization of securities (including any modification or re-enactment thereof and rules/Regulation made thereunder) shall prevail and apply accordingly.

Transmission of shares

35. (i) On the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the member was a joint holder, and his nominee or nominees or legal representatives where he was a shareholder, shall be the only persons recognized by the company as having any title to his interest in the shares.

(ii) Nothing in clause (i) shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.

36. (i) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either—

(a) to be registered himself as holder of the share; or

(b) to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.

(ii) The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.

37. (i) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.

(ii) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.

(iii) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.

38. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company:

Provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have complied with.

Nomination of shares

39. (i) Subject to the provisions of section 72 of the Companies Act, 2013 every shareholder or debentureholder of the company, may at any time, nominate in the prescribed manner a person to whom his/her shares in, or debentures of the company shall vest in the event of his/her death.

(ii) Where the shares in, or debentures of the company are held by more than one person jointly, the jointholders may together nominate, in the prescribed manner, a person to whom all the rights in the shares or debentures of the company as the case may be, shall vest in the event of the death of all the joint holders.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any disposition, whether testamentary or otherwise, in respect of such shares in or debentures of the company where the nomination made in the prescribed manner purports to confer on any of the right to vest the shares in or debentures of the company, the nominee shall, on the death of the shareholder or debentureholder, as the case may be, on the death of the joint holders, become entitled to all the rights in such shares or debentures or as the case may be, all the joint holders, in relation to such shares or debentures, to the exclusion of all other person, unless the nomination is varied or cancelled in the prescribed manner.

(iv) Where the nominee is minor, it shall be lawful for the holder of the shares or debentures, to make the nomination to appoint, in the prescribed manner, any person to become entitled to shares in or debentures of the company, in the event of his/her death, during the minority.

40. A nominee, upon production of such evidence as may be required by the Board as per the relevant laws and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either:—

(i) To be registered himself/herself as holder of the share or debenture, as the case may be; or

(ii) To make such transfer of the share or debenture, as the case may be, as the deceased share holder or debenture holder, could have made;

(iii) If the nominee elects to be registered as holder of the share or debenture, himself/herself, as the case may be, he/she shall deliver or send to the company, a notice in writing signed by him/her stating that he/she so elects and such notice shall be accompanied with the death certificate of the deceased shareholder or debenture holder as the case may be;

(iv) A nominee shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantage to which he/she would be entitled to if he/she was the registered holder of the share or debenture except that he/she shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of his/her share or debenture, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company. Provided further that Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself/herself or to transfer the share or debenture, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonus or other money payable or rights accruing in respect of such share or debenture, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Forfeiture of shares

41. If a member fails to pay any call, or installment of a call, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.

42. The notice aforesaid shall—

(a) name a further day (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and

(b) state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day so named, the shares in respect of which the call was made shall be liable to be forfeited.

43. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect

44. (i) A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit.

(ii) At any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit.

45. (i) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares.

(ii) The liability of such person shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.

46. (i) A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a director, the manager or the secretary, of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share;

(ii) The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of;

(iii) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share; and

(iv) The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

47. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of nonpayment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Alteration of capital

48. The company may, from time to time, by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as may be specified in the resolution.

49. Subject to the provisions of section 61, the company may, by ordinary resolution,—

(a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;

(b) convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination;

(c) sub-divide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum;

(d) cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.

50. Where shares are converted into stock,—

(a) the holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit:

Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

(b) the holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

(c) such of the regulations of the company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder" in those regulations shall include "stock" and "stock-holder" respectively.

51. The company may, by special resolution, reduce in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised and consent required by law,—

- (a) its share capital;
- (b) any capital redemption reserve account; or
- (c) any share premium account.

52. (1) Except with the Investor Consent and other applicable laws, Company shall not issue Equity Shares or equity-linked securities of any kind (including, but not limited to, convertible notes, preference shares, warrants, options), save and except issue of Equity Shares on exercise of New GDRs and the conversion of the Existing FCCBs, for a period of one (1) year from the Completion Date at a price lower than Rs.35 per Equity Share/ equity-linked security. Without prejudice to the foregoing, in the event that the Company issues any Dilution Instrument at any time after complying with its obligation of securing the Investor's consent, then, the Investor shall be entitled to subscribe to such number of Dilution Instruments in proportion to its equity shareholding in the Company and shall also be entitled to subscribe to its pro rata number (calculated on the same basis after giving effect to the Investor's subscription pursuant to this sub-clause (1), but not including the numbers of Equity Shares held by other shareholders not subscribing in such issuance) of any equity securities not subscribed for by the other shareholders.

(2) The Investor shall be entitled to acquire the Dilution Instruments on the terms on which the Company proposes to issue the Dilution Instruments to any other person. Notwithstanding anything contrary contained in these Articles, the Company shall not issue any Dilution Instrument in contravention of the provisions of sub-clause (1) above.

(3) In the event that the Investor subscribes to any Equity Shares or any Securities convertible into Equity Shares, then all such newly subscribed Equity Shares or convertible instruments will also be considered "Investor Shares" and shall be entitled to all the rights as enjoyed by Investor under the Agreement, the Undertaking and these Articles. Further, in the event the Investor at any time wishes to convert or exercise any of the convertible Securities held by it, into Equity Shares, the Company shall, and shall procure that the Promoters shall, promptly and diligently take all necessary steps to facilitate such conversion by the Investor and ensure that such conversion by the Investor is in compliance with all applicable Laws, including without limitation, the FDI Policy of India and the regulations issued by the RBI under the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999.

Capitalisation of profits

53. (i) The company in general meeting may, upon the recommendation of the Board, resolve—

(a) that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the company's reserve accounts, or to the credit of the profit and loss account, or otherwise available for distribution; and

(b) that such sum be accordingly set free for distribution in the manner specified in clause (ii) amongst the members who would have been entitled thereto, if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions.

(ii) The sum aforesaid shall not be paid in cash but shall be applied, subject to the provision contained in clause (iii), either in or towards—

(A) paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such members respectively;

(B) paying up in full, unissued shares of the company to be allotted and distributed, credited as fully paid-up, to and amongst such members in the proportions aforesaid;

(C) partly in the way specified in sub-clause (A) and partly in that specified in sub-clause (B);

(D) A securities premium account and a capital redemption reserve account may, for the purposes of this regulation, be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares;

(E) The Board shall give effect to the resolution passed by the company in pursuance of this regulation.

54. (i) Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed, the Board shall—

(a) make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares if any; and

(b) generally do all acts and things required to give effect thereto.

(ii) The Board shall have power—

(a) to make such provisions, by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit, for the case of shares becoming distributable in fractions; and

(b) to authorise any person to enter, on behalf of all the members entitled thereto, into an agreement with the company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid-up, of any further shares to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or as the case may require, for the payment by the company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amount or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares;

(iii) Any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on such members.

Buy-back of shares

55. Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles but subject to the provisions of sections 68 to 70 and any other applicable provision of the Act or any other law for the time being in force, the company may purchase its own shares or other specified securities.

General meetings

56. All general meetings other than annual general meeting shall be called extraordinary general meeting.

57. (i) The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, call an extraordinary general meeting.

(ii) If at any time directors capable of acting who are sufficient in number to form a quorum are not within India, any director or any two members of the company may call an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which such a meeting may be called by the Board.

Proceedings at general meetings

58. (i) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.

(ii) Save as otherwise provided herein, the quorum for the general meetings shall be as provided in section 103.

59. The chairperson, if any, of the Board shall preside as Chairperson at every general meeting of the company.

60. If there is no such Chairperson, or if he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or is unwilling to act as chairperson of the meeting, the directors present shall elect one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.

61. If at any meeting no director is willing to act as Chairperson or if no director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.

Adjournment of meeting

62. (i) The Chairperson may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.

(ii) No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

(iii) When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.

(iv) Save as aforesaid, and as provided in section 103 of the Act, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

Voting rights

63. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares,—

(a) on a show of hands, every member present in person shall have one vote; and

(b) on a poll, the voting rights of members shall be in proportion to his share in the paid-up equity share capital of the company.

64. A member may exercise his vote at a meeting by electronic means in accordance with section 108 and shall vote only once.

65. (i) In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders.

(ii) For this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.

66. A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee or other legal guardian, and any such committee or guardian may, on a poll, vote by proxy.

67. Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll.

68. No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the company have been paid.

69. (i) No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes.

(ii) Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairperson of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

70. The Company acknowledges that on Completion the Investor will only be a minority financial investor and not acquire control and management of the Company. The Promoters shall continue to remain in control of the Company and continue to manage the Company and its business and affairs. The Company will ensure that: (i) the Investor shall not be considered/ classified/ named or deemed as a 'promoter' of the Company for any reason whatsoever (unless required by applicable Law) in the prospectus or any other documents related to a public offering or otherwise and (ii) the Investor Shares are not be subject to any restriction whatsoever (including that of lock-in or other restrictions) which are applicable to promoters under any applicable Law, unless such restriction is required by applicable Law to be placed specifically on the Investor. If applicable Law does not permit the abovementioned actions, the Parties shall exercise all their rights and take all actions to endeavour to achieve the objectives of this Article 70 in accordance with applicable Law.

Proxy

71. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power-of-attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarised copy of that power or authority, shall be deposited at the registered office of the company not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

72. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the form as prescribed in the rules made under section 105.

73. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given:

Provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the company at its office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

Board of Directors

74. The number of the directors and the names of the first directors shall be determined in writing by the subscribers of the memorandum or a majority of them.

75. Unless otherwise determined by a Special Resolution and consented to by the Investor in writing, the number of Directors shall not less than three and more than twelve including the Debenture Director, if any.

76. (1) The Investor shall be entitled to nominate such number of directors on the Board proportionate to its shareholding, provided that the number of Investor Directors shall at all times be less than the number of Directors nominated by the Promoters subject to the Investor being entitled to nominate at least one director, to attend any and all meetings of the Board and in the absence of any of the nominee alternate directors, the Investor shall be entitled to nominate alternate directors who shall have the right to attend any and all such meetings of the Board

("Investor Director(s)"). All Investor Director(s) shall be non-executive directors. The Company shall also appoint sufficient number of Independent Directors in order to comply with the provisions of the listing agreement of the Exchange.

(2) The appointment of the Investor Director shall be by direct nomination by the Investor and any appointment or removal under this Article shall unless the contrary intention appears, take effect from the date it is notified to the Company in writing.

(3) If the Law does not permit the person nominated by an Investor to be appointed as a Director of the Company merely by nomination by the Investor, the Company shall ensure that the Board forthwith (and in any event within seven (7) Business Days of such nomination or at the next Board meeting, whichever is earlier) appoints such person as a Director of the Company and further that, unless the concerned Investor changes or withdraws such nomination, such person is also elected as a Director of the Company at the next general meeting of the shareholders of the Company.

(4) Notwithstanding that the Investor Director may be an Independent director (as such expression is defined in any listing agreement entered into at any time between the Company and the Exchange) the Investor Director shall not be construed or counted by the Company as an independent director for the purpose of determining the number of independent directors which the Company is required to have on its Board by the listing agreement.

(5) Without prejudice to the above, the Company agrees to exercise all powers and rights available to it so as to fix the number of directors in accordance with this Article and to ensure that the persons nominated by the Investor are expeditiously appointed or removed (as the Investor may specify) as a Director of the Company and that the appointments and removals referred to in this Article result in the persons nominated / appointed or removed becoming or ceasing, as the case may be, to be Directors of the Company.

(6) None of the Investor Directors, nominated/appointed on the Board from time to time, shall be appointed on the board of any other company that may be in similar business as that of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries and/or their respective businesses.

(7) The Investor Director shall not be liable to retire by rotation.

77. The Investor shall be entitled to nominate and maintain in office one director on the board of directors of each of the Subsidiaries (and to remove from office any such director(s) so nominated and to nominate another in the place of the director(s) so removed) and the Company shall ensure that such nominated director(s) is appointed as a director(s) on the board of directors of such Subsidiaries. It is hereby clarified that the provisions of these Articles in relation to the Investor Directors including appointment, procedures for meetings, reserved matters, information and inspection rights, etc. shall, mutatis mutandis apply to each director nominated by the Investor on the board of directors of each of the Subsidiaries.

78. At least one Independent Director (who shall be mutually agreeable to the Promoters and the Investor) shall be primarily focused on strategy and business development for the regulated markets. Such Independent director shall focus on ANDA strategy, commercial partnerships, and new product development strategy. As long as the Investor holds the Minimum Stake, such appointment of the Independent director shall be in consultation with the Investor. The Investor believes that its consultation for such a nominee in such a role can significantly help the Company execute its growth plans, and as such, create value for all the shareholders of the Company.

79. (i) The remuneration of the directors shall be decided by the Board and in so far as it consists of a monthly payment, be deemed to accrue from day-to-day.

(ii) In addition to the remuneration payable to them in pursuance of the Act, the directors may be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them—

(a) in attending and returning from meetings of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof or general meetings of the company; or

(b) in connection with the business of the company.

80. The Board may pay all expenses incurred in getting up and registering the company.

81. The company may exercise the powers conferred on it by section 88 with regard to the keeping of a foreign register; and the Board may (subject to the provisions of that (section) make and vary such regulations as it may think fit respecting the keeping of any such register.

82. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, hundis, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for monies paid to the company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, or otherwise executed, as the case may be, by such person and in such manner as the Board shall from time to time by resolution determine.

83. Every director present at any meeting of the Board or of a committee thereof shall sign his name in a book to be kept for that purpose.

84. (i) Subject to the provisions of section 149, the Board shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint a person as an additional director, provided the number of the directors and additional directors together shall not at any time exceed the maximum strength fixed for the Board by the articles.

(ii) Such person shall hold office only up to the date of the next annual general meeting of the company but shall be eligible for appointment by the company as a director at that meeting subject to the provisions of the Act.

(iii) Board of Directors may appoint alternate director in the manner as provided in Section 161 (2) of the Act.

(iv) Board of Directors may appoint nominee director in the manner as provided in Section 161 (3) of the Act.

(v) Board of Directors may fill casual vacancy for vacating director in the manner as provided in Section 161 (3) of the Act.
